

We are committed to protecting the privacy of our users and ensuring the security of their personal information. This Privacy Policy outlines the information we collect, how we use it, and the choices you have concerning your data.

Information Collection:

We may collect the following types of information:

Personal Information: Name, email address, and other contact details when you voluntarily provide them.

Usage Data: Information about your interactions with our website, including pages visited, IP address, and browser type.

Cookies: We use cookies to enhance your browsing experience and collect anonymous data for analytics purposes.

Use of Information:

We use your information for the following purposes:

To provide information and support regarding suicide awareness and prevention.

To send updates, newsletters, and relevant content.

To improve our website's functionality and user experience.

Data Security:

We take reasonable measures to protect your information, but no data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed as 100% secure. Please be cautious when sharing personal information online.

Sharing Information:

We do not sell or rent your personal information to third parties. We may share your data with trusted service providers to help us operate the website effectively.

Your Choices:

You have the right to access, modify, or delete your personal information at any time.

You can opt-out of receiving communications from us by unsubscribing from our newsletters.